Front-End Designer

About Me

I am a Front-End Designer who loves to build from pixel to code and turn ideas to life on the web. I am driven by a desire to constantly grow in my personal and professional life.

Experience

Front-End Designer (Freelance)

2018-present - New Orleans/Netherlands

- Front-end design for various clients. Working with sites in Angular and Vue, static site generators such as Hugo and Jekyll and CMS platforms such as Craft and Wordpress.
- Working directly with stakeholders: wireframing, prototyping, design, build-out, developer collaboration and troubleshooting.

Design & Web Development (Domino Data Lab)

2016-2018 - New Orleans, Louisiana

- Lead Creative for the Marketing team, working closely with major stakeholders to create web and graphic solutions for a rapidly scaling startup in a constantly evolving data science landscape.
- Designed, developed and maintained main corporate website, blog and event websites run on Jekyll and Wordpress.
- Created branding for Strata Conferences and all company led events.

Graphic & Web Design (Freelance)

2014-2015 - Phnom Penh, Cambodia

- Worked with various NGOs in Asia to assist in graphic and web design.
- Created websites for organizations with little web presence, and created landing pages for events.
- Website consultation for organizations looking to expand online.

Graphic & Web Design (Industry44)

2010-2014 - Montreal, Quebec

- Lead web designer for small web studio.
- Designed all websites and worked with developers for implementation.
- In charge of all graphic design (business cards, magazine advertisements and brochures).
- Worked as a client liaison for developers and managers.
