Front-End Designer

I have been interested in the web since I was 15 years old, making celebrity websites in the middle of the night. I started my career as a graphic designer but have since grown into a Front-End Designer. I love to build from pixel to code and turn ideas to life on the web. I am driven by a desire to constantly grow in my personal and professional life.

Experience

Front-End Designer (Freelance)

2018-present - New Orleans/Netherlands

- Front-End design for various client websites
- UI/UX design for web apps
